FRED KURTZ, -- EDITOR

Disston's big saw works, in Philadelphia, were destroyed by fire a few days ago.

The supreme court, the other day, settled the question on the discretion of the court in thematterofgranting licenses, by a decision putting it in the power of the court to grant or refuse, at its own option, regardless of any petition.

The electric wire seems to be resolving itself into the issue whether mankind will be able to put the wires under ground, or the wires shall keep on putting men under ground. At present the wires are well ahead.

Pardee & Co., coal operators at Hazleton, have given notice to their employes, the late strikers, that they have decided to return to the old system of monthly payments, as paying twice a month involves too much extra labor. It is tho't other operators will follow the move. It is said the return to the old system is due to the falling off in business at the company's stores. When men were paid every two weeks they did not have to ask credit, but bought for cash. The notice causes more or less excitement in labor circles.

The Democracy of New York state have voiced their preference of a presidential candidate in the most harmonious and enthusiastic convention of its history. They have given a unanimous and emphatic endorsement of the "doctrines affirmed in the last annual message of the president." They have instructed their delegates to the St. Louis convention to vote as a unit for the renomination of Cleveland.

The same unanimity was prevalent on all questions that were considered in the convention. The state administration of Gov. Hill was extolled and the corrupt legislation of the recent legislature was deservedly condemned. In short the work of this convention is such as will keep the state in line for the Democracy in November by a majority that will be overwhelming.

Philadelphia's latest project in commemorative enterprise is that of building within her limits a joint monument to the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the framers of the Constitution of the United States. To all parts of the country an appeal is to be made for subscriptions. The feature of inscribing upon the monument a fac-simile of the signatures upon the Declaration and the Constitution will add to its interest. But a less wise step taken by the recent meeting called upon this subject was that of reviving the old grievance in regard to the celebration of 1876 The meeting of representatives from the thirteen original States decided that it would be a good thing for Congress to pay to the people of Philadelphia the sum of $1,500,000 to reimburse them for their expenses on that occasion. This was the amount of the loan which Congress made, and which had to be paid back. Local appeals for a share of the surplus in the Treasury are abundant, but the chances of success for this one are not brilliant.

At a meeting of the survivors association in Philadelphia, last week, Colonel Aylett, of Virginia, who took a prominent part in the battle of Gettysburg as a confederate commander, made an address. The sentiment of the average southern is expressed in this speech and for the benefit of those who persist in waving the bloody shirt upon every public occasion, some portions of the production are given below, which carries the inspiration of a true American.

If there are any blots or blemishes upon the North or South, let us teach posterity not to see or to proclaim them. As loving members of the same great family, let us never more proclaim through Congress or the sectional press the sins and shortcomings of our brethren, but let us with downcast eye and averted face throw the mantle of affectionate charity and concealment over the imperfections of kindred people and sister States. Let it be established as the great common law of this land that no man, whether in the land of the Blue or the Gray, who seeks to revive sectional or war feelings shall ever rise to place, power or honor anywhere among the American people. Let us deliver to an "immortality of honest scorn" and perpetual banishment men who would keep aglow the dead emblems of fratricidal strife.

In conclusion the speaker said:

God bless the name and fame and memory of Grant! We recognize in his character and in that of Lee the greatness, magnanimity and honor of the American soldier, and that the peace, safety and perpetuity of our Union can safely repose upon that element represented by the Blue and the Gray.

MEMORIAL DAY IN THE SOUTH.

The following editorial taken from last Sunday's Charleston (S. C., Dispatch, one of the bitterest organs of secession during the war, is evidence that at least some of those who rebelled against the flag are willing to forget the strife that bore them down, and with us, help to rear a monument of national greatness surpassing that of all other nations of the earth. Referring to the dead of the lost cause, whose graves were decorated on Thursday last, it says:

"Next Thursday will be Memorial Day when our heroic dead who lie in the public and private cemeteries of Charleston will be crowned with flowers, the sweetest and rarest that can be found, and laurel, the greenest that grows. How worthy are our dead of every manifestation of our deep undying regard, and more especially so, forsooth the cause that they so gallantly and persistently defended, went down, but under circumstances that no earthly power could avert. As the years glide away so may the animosities that once lay between our people, melt and fade under the warmest ties of common country.

Perhaps, after all it was the beneficient Father's providence that shaped results as they happened, for who better than He knows the needs of humanity's moral and physical forces. The change made by the war was sharp and sudden, and feel with crushing weight upon us and at the moment it seemed as though the burden was greater that we could bear, but not so, for here we are to-day, safely through the furnace, and all the better and more hopeful, we hope, for the trial to which it was our lot to be subjected.

Thursday the skies should be in their brightest blue, and the airs that shall bend the growing tendrils be freighted with rarer fragrance, in tender memory of the event which we shall commemorate.

And so they will be if we are moved by a large patriotism, and do not fail to remember that other hearts were sorrowed besides ours, and that other lives were sacrificed in the behalf of principles as dear to them as were ours to us.

The United States is our country as well as of those who carried their colors triumphantly over our desolated fields and homes. Let us rise superior to any spirit that would make us repine at the past, and not see in the future a prospect inviting and exhilarating.

Our dead! ah, indeed, we love their memories; they are precious heirlooms to us, but let us not be selfish, and while we send our silent prayers on high for their restful repose, bear in mind that the grave is the repository for anger and revenge."

BEAVER TRYING TO WORK HIS WAY UP.

New York, May 7.—The Harrisburg correspondent of the Sun says: It has been known for some time by the inside party workers that Governor Beaver's ambition is directed toward Mr. Cameron's seat in the United States Senate. About the time the republican State Convention met here on April 23, and since then, Governor Beaver's inclination has become more apparent, and he has begun in a quiet way to formulate his plans for an active contest. The "one legged" Governor has not until this time lost an opportunity to gain a point for his own cause, and the people of the Seventeenth Congress district, where the wishes of the Republicans are being sacrificed in the distribution of State patronage are calling him an "unscrupulous politician."

Governor Beaver is allowing no stone to remain unturned which when inverted, may show up a big "B." He is beginning to get his work in various ways, and some startling political revelations are likely to appear before the final battle comes.

Advices from the Red River country report that damage done to the inhabitants of the Red River Valley during the past 10 days is almost beyond computation, and the overflow the largest since 1843. Most of the plantations near the river have been covered with water four to six feet deep, and many miles of fencing, cribs and barns have been washed down and carried away. Many of the people have lost their household furniture, provisions and corn. In several places the river water extended from the hills of Aakansas to the hills of Texas, a distance of 10 to 14 miles. At West Norwood a negroe was drowned yesterday trying to swim from the overflow. Two white men were drowned in Mill creek, and quiet a number of other deaths are reported, but names not given. Planting in the bottoms will all have to be done over again.

A drummer fell five stories in Chicago and was not killed. He must have landed on the side of his face.

A Philadelphia saloon keeper went crazy when the authorities refused to renew his license. And we suppose while he had license a good many other fellows were made crazy.

HE TOOK THE CONGRESSMAN'S ADVICE.

Congressman Browne of Indiana has a constituent in Washington who occasionally indulges too freely in the flowing bowl. He has been a good fellow in his day, but, like men of his calibre, has rapidly decended the ladder, until now he is compelled to ask assistance to carry him through the day quite frequently. A few days ago he called on Mr. Browne and said that he wanted a dollar with which to get supper, lodging and break fast. Mr. Browne handed fifty cents to him with the remark:

"You can get all you want as well as a few drinks for this half dollar."

He protested that he could do nothing of the kind, and asked Mr. Browne how it could be accomplished. "Take this half dollar," said the Congressman, "and spend it in the ordinary manner. Get full and the police will pull you in and take care of you for the night and give you a breakfastin the morning."

The constituent pocketed the money and departed, and Mr. Browne forgot all about him until the next day. In the morning a policeman came to his house with a message from the constituent. He sent word that he had taken Mr. Browne's advice, had been arrested, and he wanted him to come and get him out of the police court.

CORRUPTERS OF JUSTICE.

A rather interesting scene occurred in a Chicago court last week which affords food for some sober reflections. A lawyer was proved to have palmed of a forged decree of divorce on a client from whom he extracted $30, the case having really been dismissed two years ago. In sentencing the forger to jail for ninety days for his contempt, the Judge, whose signature was forged, made the following declaration:

This Court House is full from top to bottom of men who are making money by nefarious means. Some of them by nefarious callings, some of them are professional corrupters of justic, and they are all engaged in various kinds of despicable and rascally business. Now so help me God, if ever, and whenever, any of these persons fall into my hands, I shall punish them to the fullest extent and with the utmost rigor of the law.

A DECISION.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that saloon keepers are responsible for any injury loss or damage suffered by their patrons in the saloon, or as a consequence of their visits there. It says: "When one enters a saloon or tavern, opened for the entertainment of the public, the proprietor is bound to see that he is properly prtoected from the assaults or insults of those who are in his employ, as well as of the drunken and vicious men whom he may choose to harbor." This will probably make men more careful about signing saloon keeper's bonds. Scarcely a day passes without an account of some one being assaulted or robbed in some saloon. If brewers and distillers who are usually the bondsmen of saloon keepers, are made to foot the bills for the assaults, it will be a sort of poetic justice which they will not relish.

GREAT FLOODS.

From Fairbalt, Minn., down to St. Louis, and from Hannibal, Mo., to Isapeming, Mich., the people of the middle western country are fighting the rising waters At Fairbalt it has rained for two weeks without cessation. It was too cold there this morning for rain and ice formed freely. About noon the wind became southerly and as the ice melted the rivers and contributary stream assumed such proportions that the damage done by the water will injure crops in that section to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars. All manufacturing establishments are at a standstill.

THE LICENSE DECISION.

The Supreme Court settled the question whether the Judges of the License Courts have discretion to refuse licenses, or not, by its decision on Monday. Its settlement was made very distinct, in Judge Paxson's decision, by simply quoting the provision of the law requiring Judges to refuse licenses, "Whatever is the opinion of said Court, having due regard to the number and character of the petitioners for and against such applications, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and entertainment of travelers or strangers." Whether the eminent lawyers who maintained that the Judges have no discretion, went through the formality of reading the law, before applying for an injunction, is not in evidence; but it is quite possible that they did so, and then proceeded to argue according to legal custom that because the law said one thing it meant something else. The result of their ingenuity has, however, been to place the status of the law beyond question; and every one will now find it advisable to settle down with the knowledge that high and restricted license is a very large-sized and well-rooted fact.

SIMON CAMERON TALKS.

HOW JACSON AND LINCOLN SECURED THEIR RENOMINATION FOR A SECOND TERM.

At the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Cameron Club in Philadelphia' General Simon Cameron now in his 89th year, made the following interesting remarks:

"Gentlemen, I hardly know how to address you. I do not think I am worthy of the many kind words that have been said of me by my friend, General Bingham. When this club was organized the times were trying. Mr. Lincoln was then looking forward to the possibilities of a second term, and it seemed to me, who saw him frequently at this period, that he was frightened over his chances. He sent for me one day and told me his doubts about his renomination, and I tried to set them at rest. I told him that no matter how much his opponents in the party might contrive they could not defeat him, and I finally said: "I will tell you an incident in my career during President Jacson's term which may help you out. Near the close of the term of President Jacson had said he only wanted one term, but afterward changed his mind, I was sent for to come to Washington from New Orleans, where I was at the time, to see President Jackson and advise with him as to what could be done toward securing him a second term.

HOW IT WAS DONE

"When I arived in Washington and met General Jackson he told me he wanted me to do what I could toward helping him to a second term. He said: "Cameron, will you go home and get the Legislature of Pennsylvania to pass a resolution asking me to stand for a second term?" I said "no, I cannot do that; I am known as a one term man. But I can have the resolution drawn up in Washington and get some one to take it to Harrisburg and have it passed." This was done in due time, the Legislature of Pennsylvania requested General Jacson by resolution to reconsider his previous declaration not to be a canidate for reelection and stand for another term. which he finally reluctantly consented to do. "I told Mr. Lincoln this story, when he said: 'But what has that got to do with me?' "I'll show you, Mr. President,' said I.' 'I'll go to Harrisburg and get the old Jackson resolution copied and get it passed by the Legislature requesting you to stand for a renomination.' The idea seemed to please him, and accordingly we got the resolution and struck out Jacson's name and all about the State Bank, and had it adopted by the Pennsylvania Legislature, and you know the rest."

SCRANTON MERCHANTS PARALYZED.

The Scranton Board of Trade recently wrote to some of the leading New York newspapers, asking their terms for an advertisement setting forth Scranton's faculties for manufacturing purposes, and the following astounding figures came in reply to the inquiry The New York World wanted $450 for a half a page one time, The Tribune, $350. The Times, $700 in its Sunday issue. The Herald 90 cents for every sixteen words, agate type, Scranton's business men are an enterpaising lot, but these figures almost terrified them.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES RUINED.

A LARGE EXPANSE OF FERTILE TERRITORY FLOODED.

Louisiana, Mo., May 16.—The gap in the Sny levee, through which the whole Mississippi is now pouring, has widened almost 300 yards. The Sny basin contains 120,000 acres of fine farming land. Of the submerged lands 50,000 are in crops, and the majority in wheat.

Quincy, Ill, May 16.—The flood situation grew worse yesterday, and it is now almost certain that the Indian Grove district will be abandoned for years to come. The entire Indian Grove region is completely covered with water. No loss of life has yet been reported, but the damage to property in the two districts is known to be not far from $1,500,000.

Ofallon, Mo., May 16.—The water is now an unbroken sheet from bluff to bluff, except in the extreme southwest portion of the bottom.

Last fall there was a large acreage of wheat sown on these lowlands, and owing to the favorable season for corn planting a large acreage of corn planted All these crops will be wholly destroyed. if the rise does not abate.

INDIANA GRAIN UNFAVORABLE.

Indianapolis, May 16.—Discouraging reports regarding the outlook for crops are being received from all parts of Indiana. In many counties hay and oats have suffered severely from the drought, while in the southern half of the state cornfields are being devastated by the cut worms.

The vote of the Methodist Conference excluding women from acting as lay delegates seems to be a formal declaration by the brethren that they are fully satisfied with their experience of the feminine power of debate in domestic matters.

POLITICAL CONVENTIONS.

New Jersey Republicans.

TRENTON, N. J., May 10.—The Republican State Convention met here yesterday at noon, and proved to be harmonious and orderly. There was not a break anywhere. There were no factional fights. The four slated candidates for delegates at large—Sewell, Griggs, Brewer and Halsey—were elected without opposition, no other names being presented. Resolutions highly commending William Walter Phelps were passed.

Wisconsin Endorses Gov. Rusk.

MADISON, Wis., May 10.—The Republican State Convention, held here yesterday, slipped along without a jar. Four delegates-at-large, Senator John C. Spooner, Henry C. Payne, H. C. Adams and H. O. Fairchild were elected to the Chicago convention.

The name of Governor Rusk was enthusiastically cheered at every mention, and by resolution his name was presented to the National Convention as a candidate in every respect worthy to receive its nomination for the Presidency. There was no

Maryland Republicans for Blaine.

BALTIMORE, May 10.—Republican Conventions were held yesterday in each of the six Congressional districts of Maryland, and the following delegates to the Chicago Convention were elected: R. J. Garey, L. E. P. Dennis, William M. Marine, William T. Warburton, William W. Johnson, William T. Airey, J. Reese Pitcher, Wesley M. Oler, Adrian Posey, James A. Gary, George L. Wellington, and Benjamin Miller. The sentiment of the various conventions showed a decided preference for Blaine.

Alabama Democratic Convention.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 10.—The Democratic State Convention met here yesterday. Gov. Seay was renominated by acclamation, and the ticket was completed as follows: C. C. Langdon, Secretary of State; John L. Cobbs, Treasurer; C. D. Hogue, Auditor: T. N. McLellan, Attorney-General, and S. Palmer, Superintendent of Education.

Georgia Prohibition Convention.

ATLANTA, May 10.—The State Temperance Convention before adjourning passed resolutions to make a general prohibition contest in the elections for the Legislature this fall. Prohibition candidates will be nominated in every county pledged to vote for a statutory prohibition law, instead of leaving the question to the vote of the people.

One of Grant's Arabian Horses Sold.

BEATRICE, Neb., May 10.—Gen. S. W. Colby of this city has purchased of U. S. Grant, Jr., the Arabian stallion Linden Tree. Linden Tree and Leopard, another Arabian horse, were presented to Gen. Grant at Constantinople in March, 1879, by the Sultan of Turkey. Linden Tree is now

Strikers Repent Too Late.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The striking beermakers are ready to return to work unconditionally. They were told, however, that their places were filled.

Still Starving Herself.

LANCASTER, Pa., May 14.—Mrs. Weidler, the fasting woman, has reached the fifty-second day of her fast. Some of the local physicians think some one has smuggled food to her, but her door has been barred, the transom nailed up and the only window is barred and three stories above the ground. The only keys to her room are in keeping of Dr. Sensenig, the resident physician, and Mrs. Eaby, the ward tender, who is an experienced and reputable woman. She was strong enough yesterday afternoon to scrub the floor of her room and set things to right.

The Mullen Tunnel Useless for Two Months

BUTTE, Mont., May 14.—From the present indications it will be fully two months before the Northern Pacific can use the Mullen tunnel.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Exciting Scenes at Irish Evictions.

DUBLIN, May 11.—Exciting struggles took place at Carmack, near Thurles, yesterday, between a strong force of emergency policemen and tenants whom they sought to evict. The police used a battering-ram in effecting an entrance to some of the houses. They met with a stout resistance, the tenants throwing boiling water at them and assaulting them with sticks and stones. Some of the intended evictions were effected. The others, it is believed, will be abandoned.

Racing in England.

LONDON, May 10.—The sixty-fifth race for the Chester Cup of 700 pounds, for three-year-olds and upward at about two miles and a quarter, was run yesterday. It had twelve starters and was won by the top weight, Mr. J. G. R. Homfray's aged horse Kinsky, with the Duke of Westminsters four-year-old Savill, second, and Lord Bradfords's four-year-old Chippeway, third

Another Monarch Dying.

LISBON, May 10.—King Luis has been failing in health for some time. He finds it impossible to attend to the business of the State and has resolved to delegate to Prince Carlos, the heir apparent, the signing of State documents and the power of representation of the King on occasion when the presence of His Majesty is required.

The Emperor's Strength Increasing.

BERLIN, May 14.—The Emperor arose at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and was dressed for the first time since the last crisis. He then walked to his study unassisted. His strength is increasing. He passed a better night than ordinarily and was much better to-day. He will soon be visited by Dr. Virchow.

Killed by Moonlighters.

DUBLIN, May 10.—James Quinn, a bog ranger, has been murdered at Laughtsis, County Cork. He received three bullet wounds. Quinn had been threatened with death by moonlighters unless he abandoned his occupation. The murdered man's family are in America.

Alice Will Have to Come Back.

LONDON, May 10.—The Court of Queens Bench has refused a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Alice Woodhull, who is held on the charge of swindling the late John Gill, of New York. Consequently the prisoner will be extradited.

Late in the day the case was adjourned until Monday and Mr. and Mrs. Scofield were required to furnish $2,500 bail for their further appearance.

HOW WAS IT ACCOMPLISHED?

That $41,000 Steal Was Not Managed in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Pinkerton's detectives, who have been at work in this city for the past two days on the robbery of $41,000 in national bank notes from the American Exchange National Bank in a package sent to the United States Treasury by the bank on Friday last, left the city last night, assured that the dummy package was substituted for the money in New York instead of in Washington or while in transit. The impression is that the money was stolen and the false package substituted therefor either in the bank or between the bank and the express office in New York.

No one individual is believed to have perpetrated the robbery. At least two men and possibly more, it is thought, are implicated in the theft.

One circumstance which went far to exonerate the express officials here is that the safe which contained the dummy package was taken direct to the Treasury from the station instead of to the main office of Adams' Express. Usually the safes are taken to the main office of the express company before being transferred to the Treasury, but the New York train was late on Saturday morning, and the Treasury wagon went directly to the station and took the safes containing the dummy packages direct to the Department.

LITTLEWOOD FAILS.

A Tame Finish to the Six-Day Race—Albert Still the Champion.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The six-day go-as-you-please race in the Madison Square Garden ended Saturday night with George Littlewood, the Englishman, twenty-one miles ahead of his nearest competitor, but ten miles behind the record made by James Albert on the same track in February. It became known early in the evening that Littlewood had broken down and could not break the record, and this robbed the closing hours of the race of the interest and excitement they would otherwise have had.

The score at the finish was as follows:

	Miles.	Laps.
Littlewood	611
Guerrero	599
Herty	573
Noremac	533
Golden	529

PARIS, May 13.—M. Jules Antoine Castagnary, the French publicist, is dead.

DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON.

Modern Spiritualism.

"Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor. And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name."—I. Sam. 28: 7, 8.

I HAVE recently become a spiritualist. At least so some of the journals of that belief declare. This, together with the fact that "mediums" are now being tried in the criminal courts, setting millions of people to make inquiry in regard to communication between this world and the next, leads me to preach this sermon.

Trouble to the right of him, and trouble to the left of him, Saul knew not what to do. As a last resort, he concluded to seek out a spiritual medium, or a witch, or anything that you please to call her—a woman, who had

of the eternal world. It was a very difficult thing to do, for Saul had either slain all the witches, or compelled them to stop business. A servant one day said to King Saul, "I know of a spiritual medium down at the village of En-dor." "Do you?" said the king. Night falls. Saul, putting off his kingly robes, and putting on the dress of a plain citizen, with two servants, goes out to hunt up this medium.

Saul and his servants after awhile reached the village, and they say, "I wonder if this is the house"; and they look in, and they see the haggard, weird, and shrivelled-up spiritual medium sitting by the light, and on the table sculptured images, and divining-rods, and poisonous herbs, and bottles, and vases. They say, "Yes, this must be the place." One loud rap brings the woman to the door; and as she stands there, holding the candle or lamp above her head, and peering out into the darkness, she says, "who is here?" The tall king informs her that he has come

TO HAVE HIS FORTUNE TOLD.

When she hears that, she trembles, and almost drops the light, for she knows there is no chance for a fortune-teller or spiritual medium in all the land. But Saul having sworn that no harm shall come to her, she says, "Well, who shall I bring up from the dead?" Saul says, "Bring up Samuel." That was the prophet who had died a little while before. I see her waving a wand, or stirring up some poisonous herbs in a cauldron, or hear her muttering over some incantations, or stamping with her foot, as she cries out to the realm of the dead, "Samuel! Samuel!" Lo, the freezing horror! The floor of the tenement opens, and the gray hairs float up, and the forehead, the eyes, the lips, the shoulders, the arms, the feet, the entire body of the dead Samuel, wrapped in sepulchral robe, appearing to the astonished group, who stagger back, and hold fast, and catch their breath, and shiver with terror.

THE DEAD PROPHET,

white and awful from the tomb, begins to move his ashen lips, and he glares upon King Saul, and cries out, "What did you bring me up for? What do you mean, King Saul?" Saul, trying to compose and control himself, makes this stammering and affrighted utterance, as he says to the dead prophet, "The Lord is against me, and I have come to you for help. What shall I do?" The dead prophet stretched forth his finger to King Saul and said, "Die to-morrow! Come with me into the sepulchre. I am going now. Come, come with me!" And lo! the floor again opens, and the feet of the dead prophet disappear, and the arms, and the shoulders, and the forehead. The floor closes. O, that was an awful seance!

I. I learn from this subject that Spiritualism is

A VERY OLD RELIGION.

Spiritualism in America was born in the year 1847, in Hydesville, Wayne County, New York, when one night there was a loud rap heard against the door of Michael Weekman; a rap a second time, a rap a third time; and all three times, when the door was opened, there was nothing found there, the knocking having been made seemingly by invisible knuckles. In that same house there was a young woman who had a cold hand passed over her face, and there being seemingly no arm attached to it, ghostly suspicions were excited.

The excitement spread. There was a universal rumpus. The Hon. Judge Edmunds declared, in a book, that he had actually seen a bell start from the top shelf of a closet, heard it ring over the people that were standing in the closet; then, swung by invisible hands, it rang over the people in the back parlor; and floated through the folding doors to the front parlor, rung over the people there, and then dropped on the floor. N. P. Talmage, Senator of the United States, afterwards Governor of Wisconsin, had his head quite turned with spiritualistic demonstrations. The tables tipped and the stools tilted, and the bedsteads raised, and the chairs upset, and it seemed as if the spirits everywhere had gone into the furniture business! Well, the people said: "We have got something new in this country; it is new religion!" Oh no, my friend, thousands of years ago we find in our text a Spiritualistic seance.

Nothing in the spiritualistic circles of our day has been more strange, mysterious, and wonderful, than things which have been of the world. In all the ages there have been necromancers, those who consult with the spirits of the departed; charmers, those who put their subjects in a mesmeric state; sorcerers, those who by taking poisonous drugs see everything, and hear everything, and tell everything; dreamers, people who in their sleeping moments can see the future world and hold consultation with spirits. Yes, before the time of Christ the Brahmins went through all the table-moving, all the furniture excitement, which the spirits have exploited in our day; precisely the same thing over and over again, under the manipulations of the Brahmins. Now do you say that spiritualism is different from these? I answer, all these delusions I have mentioned belong to the same family. They are exhumations from the unseen world.

What does God think of all these delusions? He thinks so severely of them that He never speaks of them but with livid thunders of indignation. He says: "I will be a swift witness against the sorcerer." He says: "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live." And lest you might make some important distinction between spiritualism and witchcraft, God says, in so many words—"There shall not be among you a consulter of familiar spirits, or wizard, or necromancer; for they that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord." The Lord God Almighty, in a score of passages, which I have not now time to quote, utters His indignation against all this great family of delusions. After that be a Spiritualist if you dare!

II. Still further: we learn from this text how it is that people come to fall into Spiritualism. Saul had enough trouble to kill ten men. He did not know where to go for relief. After awhile he resolved to go and see the witch of En-dor. He expected that somehow she would afford him relief. It was his

TROUBLE DROVE HIM THERE.

And I have to tell you now that Spiritualism finds its victims in the troubled, the bankrupt, the sick, the bereft. You lose your watch, and you go to the fortune-teller to find where it is. You lose a friend; you want the spiritual world opened, so that you may have communication with him. In a highly wrought, nervous, and diseased state of mind, you go and put yourself in that communication. That is

WHY I HATE SPIRITUALISM.

It takes advantage of one in a moment of weakness, which may come upon us at any time. We lose a friend. The trial is keen, sharp, suffocating, almost maddening. If we could marshal a host, and storm the eternal world, and recapture our loved one, the host would soon be marshalled. The house is so lonely. The world is so dark. The seperation is so insufferable. But Spiritualism says: "We will open the future world, and your beloved one can come back and talk to you." Though we may not hear his voice, we may hear the rap of his hand. So, clear the table. Sit down. Put your hands on the table. Be very quiet. Five minutes gone. Ten minutes. No motion of the table. No response from the future world. Twenty minutes. Thirty minutes. Nervous excitement all the time increasing. Forty minutes. The table shivers. Two raps from the future world. The letters of the alphabet are called over. The departed friend's name is John. At the pronunciation of the letter "J," two raps. At the pronunciation of the letter "O," two raps. At the pronunciation of the letter "H," two raps. At the pronunciation of the letter "N," two raps. There you have the whole name spelled out. J-o-h-n, John. Now, the spirit being present, you say: "John, are you happy?" Two raps give an affirmative answer.

Pretty soon the hand of the medium begins to twitch and toss, and begins to write out, after paper and ink are furnished, a message from the eternal world. What is remarkable, the departed spirit, although it has been amid the illuminations of the heaven, cannot spell as well as it used to. It has lost all grammatical accuracy and cannot write as distinctly. I received once. I sent it back. I said: "Just please to tell those ghosts they had better go to school and get improved in their orthography." Now, just think of spirits, that the Bible represents as enthroned in glory, coming down to crawl under the table, and break crockery, and ring tea-bells before supper is ready, and rap the window-shutter on a gusty night! Is there any consolation in such poor, miserable work compared with the thought that our departed Christian friends, got rid of pain and languishing, are in the radiant society of heaven, and that we shall join them there, not in a stifled and mysterious half-utterance, which makes the hair stand on end and the cold chills creep the back, but in an unhindered and illimitable delight?

A LETTER THROUGH A MEDIUM

"And none shall murmur or misdoubt
When God's great sunrise finds us out."

III. I learn, still farther, from this subject, that Spiritualism and necromancy are

AFFAIRS OF DARKNESS.

Why did not Saul go in the day? He was ashamed to go. Besides that, he knew that this spiritual medium, like all her successors, performed her exploits in the night. The Davenports, the Fowlers, the Foxes, the spiritual mediums of all ages, have chosen the night or a darkened room. Why? The majority of their wonders have been swindles; and deception prospers best in the night.

Some of the performances of spiritual mediums are not to be ascribed to fraud, but to some occult law that after awhile may be demonstrated. But I believe that now nine hundred and ninety-nine out of every thousand achievements on the part of spiritual mediums are arrant and

UNMITIGATED HUMBUG.

The mysterious red letters that used to come out on the medium's arm were found to have been made by an iron pencil that went heavily over the flesh, not tearing it, but so disturbing the blood, that it came up in great round letters. The witnesses of the seances have locked the door, put the key in their pocket, arrested the operator, and found out, by searching the room that hidden levers moved the tables. The sealed letters that were mysteriously read without opening, have been found to have been cut at the side, and then afterwards slyly put together with gum arabic, and the medium who, with a heavy blanket over his head, could read a book, has been found to have had a bottle of phosphoric oil, by the light of which anybody can read a book; and ventriloquism, and legerdemain, and sleight of hand, and optical delusion account for nearly everything. Deception being the main staple of Spiritualism, no wonder it chooses the darkness!

You have all seen strange and unaccountable things in the night. Almost every man has at some time had a touch of hallucination. Some time ago, after I had been over-tempted to eat something indigestible before retiring at night; after retiring I saw the president of one of the prominent colleges astride the foot of the bed—while he demanded of me a loan of five cents! When I awakened I had no idea it was anything supernatural. And I have to advise you, if you hear and see strange things at night, to stop eating hot mince pie, and take a dose of bilious medicine. It is an outraged physical organism, enough to deceive the very elect after sundown, and does nearly all its work in the night. The witch of En-dor held her seances at night; so do they all. Away with this religion of spooks!

IV. Still further: I learn from my text that Spiritualism is doom and death to its disciples. King Saul thought that he would get help from the medium—but the first thing that he sees makes him swoon away, and no sooner is he resuscitated than he is told he must die. Spiritualism is doom and death to every one that yields to it.

IT RUINS THE BODY.

Look in upon an audience of spiritualists. Cadaverous. Weak. Nervous. Exhausted. Hands clammy and cold. Voices sepulchral and ominous. Bewildered with raps. I never knew a confirmed Spiritualist who had a healthy nervous system. It is incipient epilepsy and catalepsy. Destroy your nervous system and you might as well be dead, I have noticed that people who are hearing raps from the future world have but little strength left to bear the hard raps of this world. A man can live with only one lung or with no eyes, and be happy, as men have been under such afflictions; but woe be to the man whose nerves are shattered. Spiritualism smites first of all, and mightily, against the nervous system, and so makes life miserable.

I indict Spiritualism, also because it is

A SOCIAL AND MARTIAL CURSE.

The worst deeds of licentiousness and the worst orgies of obscenity have been enacted under its patronage. The story is too vile for me to tell. I will not pollute my tongue nor your ears with the recital. Sometimes the civil law has bein evoked to stop the outrage. Families innumerable have been broken up by it. It has pushed off hundreds of young women into a life of profligacy. It talks about "elective affinities," and "affinital relations," and "spiritual matches," and adopts the whole vocabulary of free-lovism. In one of its public journals it declares "marriage is the monster curse of civilization." "It is a source of debauchery and intemperance." If Spiritualism could have its full swing, it would turn this world into a pandemonium of carnality. It is an unclean, adulterous, damnable religion, and the sooner it drops into the hell from which it rose, the better for both earth and heaven. For the sake of man's honor and woman's purity, I say let the last vestige of it perish for ever. I wish I could gather up all the raps it has ever heard from spirits blest or damned, and gather them all on its own head in thundering raps of annihilation!

I further indict Spiritualism for that it is

A CAUSE OF INSANITY.

There is not an asylum between Bangor and San Francisco which has not the torn and bleeding victims of this delusion. Go into any asylum, I care not where it is, and the presiding doctor, after you have asked him, "What is the matter with that man?" will say: "Spiritualism demented him;" or, "What is the matter with that woman?" he will say, "Spiritualism demented her." It has taken down some of the brightest intellects. It swept off into mental midnight judges, senators, governors, ministersof the gospel, and one time came near capturing one of the Presidents of the United States. At Flushing, near this city, a man became absorbed with it, forsook his family, took his only fifteen thousand dollars, surrendered them to a spiritual medium in New York, attempted three times to put an end to his own life, and then was incarcerated in the State Lunatic Asylum, where he is to-day.

A FATAL FALSEHOOD

Many years ago the steamer Atlantic started from Europe for the United States. Getting mid-ocean, the machinery broke, and she floundered around day after day, and week after week; and for a whole month after she was due people wondered, and finally gave her up. There was great anguish in the cities, for there were many who had friends aboard that vessel. Some of the women, in their distress, went to the spiritual medium, and inquired as to the fate of the vessel. The medium called up the spirits, and the rappings on the table indicated the steamship lost, with all on board. Women went raving mad, and were carried to the lunatic asylum. After a while a gun was heard off Quarantine. The flags went up on the shipping, and the bells of the churches were rung. The boys ran through the streets crying: "Extra! The Atlantic is safe!" There was the embracing as from the dead, when friends came again to friends; but some of those passengers went up to find their wives in the lunatic asylum, where this cheat of infernal Spiritualism had put them.

A man in Bellevue Hospital dying from wounds made by his hand, was asked why he tried to commit suicide, and he said: "The spirits told me to." Parents have strangled their children, and when asked why they did it, replied: "Spiritualism demanded it." It is the paroxizer and forager for the madhouse. Judge Edmonds, in Broadway Tabernacle, New York, delivering a lecture in behalf of Spiritualism, admitted, in so many words: "There is a fascination about consultation with the spirits of the dead that has a tendency to lead people off from their right judgment, and to instill into them a fanaticism that is revolting to the natural mind."

It not only ruins its disciples, but it ruins the mediums also, only give it time. The Gadaraean swine, on the banks of the Lake of Galilee, no sooner became spiritual mediums than down they went, in an avalanche of pork, to the consternation of all the herdsmen. The office of a medium is bad for a man, bad for a woman, bad for a beast.

VII. I bring against this delusion a more fearful indictment:

IT RUINS THE SOUL

immortal. First it makes a man a quarter of an infidel; then it makes him half an infidel; then it makes him a whole infidel. The whole system, as I conceive it, is founded on the insufficiency on the Word of God as a revelation. God says the Bible is enough for you to know about the future world. You say it is not enough, and there is where you and the Lord differ. And although the scriptures say: "Add thou not unto His words, lest He reprove thee, and thou be found a liar," you risk it, and say, "Come back spirit of my departed father; come back spirit of my departed mother; of my companions; of my little child—and tell me somethings I don't know about you, and about the unseen world." If God is ever slapped square in the face, it is when a spiritual medium puts down her hand on the table, invoking spirits departed to make a revelation. God has told you all you ought to know, and how dare you be prying into that which is none of your business? You cannot keep the Bible in one hand and Spiritualism in the other. One or the other will slip out of your grasp, depend upon it. Spiritualism is in the fact that it has in these last days called from the future world Christian men to testify against Christianity. Its mediums call back Lorenzo Dow, the celebrated evangelist, and Lorenzo Dow testifies that Christians are idolaters. Spiritualism calls back Tom Payne, and he testifies that he is stopping in the same house in heaven with John Bunyan. They call back John Wesley, and he testifies against the Christian religion, which he all his life gloriously preached. Andrew Jackson Davis, the greatest of all the Spiritualists, comes to the front, and declares that the New Testament is but "the dismal echo of a barbaric age," and the Bible only "one of the pen-and-ink relics of Christianity."

ADVERSE TO THE BIBLE

"But," says some one, "wouldn't it be of advantage to hear from the future world? Don't you think it would strengthen Christians? There are a great many Materialists who do not believe there are souls; but if spirits from the future world should knock and talk over to us, they would be persuaded." To that I answer, in the ringing words of the Son of God: "If they believe not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead."

I believe these are the days of which the Apostle spake when he said: "In some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits." I think my audience, as well as other audiences in this day, need to have reiterated in their hearing the passages I quoted some minutes ago: "There shall not be among you a consulter of familiar spirits, or wizard, or necromancer, for they that do these things are in abomination unto the Lord;" and, "The soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, I will set Myself against them, and they shall be cut off from their people."

THE LATTER TIMES

But I invite you this morning to a noonday seance. This congregation is only one great family. Here is the church table. Come around the church table: take your seats for this great Christian seance; put your Bible on the table put your hands on top of the Bible, and then listen, and hear if there are any voices coming from the eternal world. I think there are. Listen! "Secret things belong unto the Lord, our God, but things that are revealed belong unto us and to our children." Surely, that is a voice from the spirit world! But before you rise from this Christian seance, I want you to promise me you will be satisfied with the Divine revelation until the light of the eternal throne breaks upon your vision. Do not go after the witch of En-dor. Do not sit down at table-rappings, either in sport or in earnest.

Teach your children there are no ghosts to be seen or heard in this world, save those which walk on two feet or four—human or bestial. Remember that Spiritualism, at the best, is a useless thing; for if it tells what the Bible reveals, it is a superfluity: and if it tells what the Bible does not reveal, it is a lie. Instead of going out to get other people to tell your fortune, tell your own fortune by putting your trust in God and doing the best you can. I will tell your fortune: "All things work together for good to them that love God." Insult not your own departed friends by asking them to come down and scrabble under an extension-table. Remember that there is only one Spirit whose dictation you have a right to invoke, and that is the holy blessed, and omnipotent Spirit of God. Hark! He is rapping now, not on a table, or the floor, but rapping on the door of your heart, and every rap is an invitation to Christ and a warning of judgment to come. Oh, grieve him not away! Quench Him not! He has been all around you this morning. He was all around you last night. He has been around you all your lives. Hark! There comes a voice with tender overmastering intonation, saying: "My Spirit shall not always strive."

The Power of Beauty

"Had you been," writes a correspondent, "in a South End horse-car a short time since and been listening, as the writer was, to a conversation between a lady and a conductor you would have noticed a striking illustration of the power of female loveliness. The lady passed the conductor a half-dollar in payment of her fare, upon which he instantly said:

"'This half dollar is a counterfeit.'

"'Why, is it? I'm sure I didn't know it,' she replied.

"'Well, I don't believe you did,' said he, gazing admiringly into her pretty face, while he retained the coin and passed her 45 cents good money. 'One of those rascally conductors must have passed it onto you. I'll take it and pass it onto somebody else.'"

According to Mr. E. G. Ravenstein, the English foot is used as the standard of length by countries having 471,000,000 inhabitants, the metre by 347,091,000 people, and the Castilian foot by 5,905,000. Denmark and Russia are the only countries in Continental Europe which have not adopted the metre.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

SUNDAY, MAY 20, 1888.

Jesus in Gethsemane.

LESSON TEXT.

(Matt. 26: 36-46. Memory verses, 36-39.)

LESSON PLAN.

TOPIC OF THE QUARTER: Jesus the King in Zion.

GOLDEN TEXT FOR THE QUARTER: But we behold him who hath been made a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor.—Heb. 2: 9.

LESSON TOPIC: Agonizing in Solitariness.

Lesson Outline: 1. Alone with his Sorrows, vs. 36-38. 2. Alone with his Father, vs. 39-42. 3. Alone with his Foes, vs. 44-46.

GOLDEN TEXT: Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered.—Heb. 5: 8.

DAILY HOME READINGS:

M.—Matt. 26: 36-46. The King agonizing.
T.—Mark 14: 32-42. Mark's parallel narrative.
W.—Luke 22: 39-46. Luke's parallel narrative.
T.—Isa. 53: 1-12. The cup anticipated.
F.—Matt. 20: 20-28. The cup anticipated.
S.—Matt. 27: 33-50. Draining the cup.
S.—Heb. 2: 1-18. Perfect through suffering.

LESSON ANALYSIS.

I. ALONE WITH HIS SORROWS.

I. Yearning for Prayer:

Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray (36).
He went up into the mountain apart to pray (Matt. 14: 23).
He was praying alone (Luke 9: 18).
He kneeled down and prayed (Luke 22: 41).
In the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers (Heb. 5: 7).

II. Sorrowful unto Death:

My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death (38).
A man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief (Isa. 53: 3).
Now is my soul troubled (John 12: 27).
Jesus ....was troubled in the spirit (John 13: 21).
With strong crying and tears (Heb. 5: 7).

III. Separated from Men:

Abide ye here (38).
I have trodden the wine-press alone (Isa. 63: 3).
No one knoweth the Son, save the Father (Matt. 11: 27).
He was there alone (Matt. 14: 23).
They all left him, and fled (Mark 14: 50).

1. "A place called Gethsemane." (1) A place of prayer; (2) A place of agony; (3) A place of betrayal; (4) A place of desertion.
2. "My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death." (1) Soul-sorrow; (2) Excessive sorrow; (3) Sorrow unto death.
3. "Watch with me." (1) Personal watchfulness; (2) Christian Watchfulness; (3) Co-operative watchfulness; (4) Continuous watchfulness.

II. ALONE WITH HIS FATHER.

I. The Bitter Cup:

If it be possible, let this cup pass away from me (39).
Jerusalem, which hast drunk....the cuw of his fury (Isa. 51: 17).
Are ye able to drink the cup that I drink (Mark 10: 38).
Remove this cup from me (Mark 14: 36).
The cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it (John 18: 11).

II. The Painful Surprise:

What, could ye not watch with me one hour? (40).
Simon, sleepest thou? couldst thou not watch one hour (Mark 14: 37).
Why sleep ye? rise and pray (Luke 22: 46).
I marvel that ye are so quickly removing from him (Gal 1: 6).
Ye were running well; who did hinder you? (Gal. 5: 7).

III. The Beloved Father:

O my Father....thy will be done (42).
I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth (Matt. 11; 25).
I and the Father are one (John 10: 30).
I knew that thou hearest me always (John 11: 42).
As thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee (John 17: 21).

1. "He went forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed." (1) Jesus alone; (2) Jesus prostrate; (3) Jesus in prayer.
2. "O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from me." (1) The loving address; (2) The recognized contingency; (3) The earnest petition.
3. "Thy will be done." (1) The Father's sovereignty; (2) The Son's submission.

III. ALONE WITH HIS FOES.

I. The Crisis:

Behold, the hour is at hand (45).
The Master saith, My time is at hand (Matt. 26: 18).
He....prayed that....the hour might pass away from him (Mark 14: 35).
This is your hour, and the power of darkness (Luke 22: 53).
Father, the hour is come (John 17: 1).

II. The Betrayal:

The Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners (45).
The Son of man shall be delivered up (Matt. 17: 22).
Delivered unto the chief priests and scribes (Matt. 20: 18).
Delivered up to be crucified (Matt 26: 2).
Who was delivered up for our trespasses (Rom. 4: 25).

III. The Betrayer:

Behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me (46).
Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him (Matt. 10: 4).
I have sinned in that I betrayed the innocent blood (Matt. 27: 4).
Woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed (Mark 14: 21).
Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? (Luke 22: 48).

1. "He left them again." (1) To secure privacy; (2) To renew prayer; (3) To beseech help.
2. "The hour is at hand." (1) The objective hour of prophecy; (2) The focal hour of history; (3) The supreme hour of agony; (4) The crucial hour of redemption.
3. "The Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners." (1) By the cupidity of Judas; (2) Through the envy of the rulers; (3) For a paltry sum of money; (4) To the suffering of untold agonies; (5) With the consent of the Father; (6) With the acquiescence of the Son; (7) To the redemption of a world.

LESSON BIBLE READING.

JESUS IN GETHSEMANE.

1. The Place:

Its name (Matt. 26: 36; Mark 14: 32).
Its location (Matt. 26: 30; John 18: 1).
Called a garden (John 18: 1).
A favorite resort of Jesus (John 18: 2).
Well known to the disciples (John 18: 2).

2. The Events:

He leaves the disciples (Matt. 26: 36-39).
His attitude in prayer (Matt. 26: 39; Mark 14: 35).
His words in prayer (Mark 14: 36; Luke 22: 41, 42).
His agony (Luke 22: 44).
His angelic support (Luke 22: 43).
His renewed praying (Matt. 26: 42, 44).
His first cautions (Mark 14: 33, 34).
The disciples' neglect (Matt. 26: 40; Luke 22: 45).
Renewed cautions (Matt. 26: 41; Mark 14: 38).
The crisis (Matt. 26: 45, 46).
Arrested and led away (John 18: 12).

LESSON SURROUNDINGS.

Immediately before the departure to the mount of Olives, a notice of which closed the last lesson (v. 30), our Lord uttered the long discourse recorded by John only (John 14-17). That discourse, however, seems to be linked closely with a prediction of Peter's denial (John 13: 36-38), and the incident of the swords (Luke 22: 35-38) may be placed immediately after that prediction. Matthew and Mark agree in telling of such a prediction after they mention the departure to the mount of Olives (Matt. 26: 30-35; Mark 14: 26-31). Hence it has been thought that the prediction was repeated, and that the second one was uttered on the way to Gethsemane. There is nothing to forbid this theory; but if there was but one prediction, it was made before the discourse. Robinson placed it before the institution of the Lord's Supper, but this dislocates the order of all the accounts.

The scene of this lesson is Gethsemane, a "garden" where Jesus was wont to resort, on the western slope of the mount of Olives, probably not far from the traditional site. The time was Thursday night, after the fifteenth of Nisan had begun; but, according to our reckoning, the night following April 6, year or Rome 783,—A. D. 30.

Parallel passages: Mark 14: 32-42; Luke 22: 40 46.

Good Advice to Young Lawyers.

In Philadelphia, Justice Paxon of the State Supreme Court, in the rooms of the Pennsylvania Historical Society delivered an interesting address on the "Road to Success in the Law, or Practical Hints to the Junior Bar." Among other things he said:

"If you find your client is trying to obtain possession of anything to which he has no legal right you are, in assisting him, a participer in the crime, and you are committing robbery by means of this law.

"You must not tell falsehoods, not even with a mental reservation. When a lawyer obtains a reputation for sincerity and honesty he is on a fair road to success.

"Remain in your office when you are not forced to be absent from it by professional duties. You can obtain many clients by always being at your post.

"To all I recommend patience; do not solicit business, as that is most unprofessional.

"Be careful how heavily you charge your first client; in your eagerness to get the golden egg don't kill the goose that lays it.

"If your client's case is a hopeless one tell him so at once. Frivilous litigation only rebounds upon the lawyer.

"Attend to your client's business promptly. I press this upon you with all earnestness. It is the lazy man with little business, who is careless of the little he has.

"Don't learn to lean upon the advice of others. Depend on yourself. Get the law from the books and not second hand from an old practitioner.

"Be prompt in paying your clients the money you have collected for them. This I consider of vital importance.

"Be careful of your habits. I have heard of the care of large estates taken from men simply because they drank. There are no drinking saloons, licensed or unlicensed, along the road to success.

"In addressing a jury don't make long speeches; don't ask the witnesses unnecessary questions; don't make unnecessary objections; the jury who look to the court for their law lose confidence in the lawyer whose objections are constantly overruled.

"When you bring your case before the Supreme Court don't cite too many authorities. We have always five or six cases to consider a night, and it is really not necessary in a case involving a promissory note to cite every case in which the word promissory note occurs."

A man who is concerned in the making of acoustic telephones has discovered that the efficiency of his machine is not in the least impaired even by several angles in the wire, consisting of 90° each. It has been stated that under these conditions he has conversed to a distance of nearly one-half a mile. If this statement be true it is an advance in the acoustic telephone which will render that instrument of considerable commercial value.

"Didn't Know It Was Loaded."

The young man fell dead!

A friend had pointed a revolver at him.

"He didn't know it was loaded!"

We often hear it stated that a man is not responsible for what he does not know. The law presupposes knowledge and therefore convicts the man who excuses crime by ignorance!

"If I had only known" has often been an unfortunate's man's apology for some evil unknowingly wrought, but in a matter of general interest—as for instance that laudanum is a poison, that naphtha is a deadly explosive, that blood heavily charged with a winter's accumulations of the waste of the system,—it is one's duty to know the fact and the consequences thereof. Our good old grandmothers knew for instance, that the opening of spring was the most perilous period of the year.

Why?

Because then the blood stream is sluggish and chilled by the cold weather, and if not thinned a good deal and made to flow quickly and healthfully through the arteries and veins, it is impossible to have good vigor the rest of the year. Hence, without exception, what is now known as Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla, was plentifully made and religiously given to every member of the family regularly through March, April, May and June. It is a matter of record that this prudential preventive and restorative custom saved many a fit of sickness, prolonged life and happiness to a vigorous old age, and did away with heavy medical expenditures.

Mrs. Maggie Kerchwal, Lexington, Ky., used Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla "for nervous sick headache of which I had been a sufferer for years. It has been a great benefit to me." Capt. Hugh Harkins, 1114 S. 15th St., Philadelphia, Pa., says 'it purified my blood and removed the blotches from my skin." Mrs. Aarea Smith, Topton, Berks Co., Pa., says she "was entirely cured of a skin disease of the worst kind," by Log Cabin Sarsaparilla. Bad skin indicates a very bad condition of the blood.

If you would live and be well, go to your druggist to-day and get Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla and take no other,—there's nothing like it or as good,—and completely renovate your impaired system with this simple, old-fashioned preparation of roots and herbs.

Warner, who makes the famous Safe Cure, puts it up, and that is a guarantee of excellence all over the known world. Take it yourself and give it to the other members of the family, including the children. You will be astonished at its health-giving and life-prolonging powers. We say this editorially with perfect confidence, because we have heard good things of it everywhere, and its name is a guarantee that it is first class in every particular.

FARM NOTES.

CORN FOR BREEDING COWS.—Most authorities say, and truly, that grain, and especially corn meal, should not be fed to cows with calf. It is too fattening, and increases the danger from milk fever or other diseases at farrowing time. But an old farmer tells us that he has always practised giving a few ears of corn daily to cows for a week or two before calving. His cows always do well, drop their calves without difficulty, and he regards this feed as one of the causes of their easy parturition. The corn is not enough in amount, or continued long enough to fatten, and probably its beneficial effect is due to its influence in keeping the bowels open. Corn is a laxative food, especially if fed in the ear, and where roots cannot be had, it may in such cases be substituted for them.

MUCK for fertilizing purposes should be thrown out of the bed in the fall or winter and allowed to weather and become fine and dry before being used. A rich alluvial soil might be as good as swamp muck. Both vary exceeding in their fertilizing value. Use dry muck as an absorbent to the stable or compost bone and ashes with it, or manure fertilizer or some kind. Spread this on your light soil and get it into clover. Plow that under and you will get the land up in fair condition for any crop.

MAKE a compost heap upon which to place the refuse of the farm, such as tops of vegetables that are not fed to stock, the rakings and leaves, and add a proportion of manure occasionally. Upon the heap throw soapsuds, urine and other liquids, care being taken to have all material cut fine. Dry dirt may also be added as an absorbent. It will prove excellent for the garden in spring, as its fine condition will permit of its being spread evenly.

FRENCH sardines are packed in the United States, Dutch bulbs are grown in France, Scotch oatmeal is made in Ohio, Italian olive oil comes from the United States, Java coffee is furnished by Mexico, Arabian coffee comes from Brazil, Sheffield cutlery is manufactured by the Germans, and Havana cigars are made the world over. Behold what a brotherhood there is among the nations of the earth, when there is any money in it.

VERY early lambs will begin to come in January and too much precaution to protect them from cold and keep them warm cannot be taken. Many young lambs become chilled at time of birth, from which they never fully recover. A good start at the beginning will add greatly to the thrift of the lambs If a ewe be deficient in milk give the lamb to some ewe that has lost her own. Always try to save them, as the early ones are valuable.

IN constructing a stable, or other place for the accommodation of stock, it will be of great advantages as well as save food and labor, if the building be first sheathed with any kind of rough boards, and tarred paper (or any kind of thick, heavy paper) placed on, following with the weather-boarding. Such a stable will be free from cracks that allow the wind to enter.

INCONSIDERATE.—A Harlem music teacher moved into a third-story flat. During the evening of the day on which he moved he spent several hours with some boon companions, and consequently when he went to his new quarters, about midnight, drunk as a boiled owl, it took him about half an hour to get up the three flights of stairs, he falling down several times.

An old lady who lived on the second floor, while talking with the janitor next morning said:

"I think that new tenant on the third floor is very inconsiderate. Why didn't he move his piano during the day, instead of waiting until everybody in the house was asleep.

BRIDEGROOM (on their way to Paris)—You're sure you're quite warm and comfortable, love?

Bride—Oh, yes, dear, quite.

Bridegroom—I don't like to see you sitting with your back to the engine, darling. You don't feel any draught?

Bride—Oh, not the slightest.

Bridegroom (who does)—Then sweetest, would you mind changing places?

WITHOUT PAIN.—Patient (jumping from the dentist's chair and crying with anguish)—Oh! oh! oh! ee! I thought you said you pulled teeth without pain?

Dentist (smiling pleasantly)—So I do; it doesn't hurt me any.

"HAVE you any spring here in New York?" asked a Southern gentleman of a New York landlady.

"O, yes, we have spring now."

"Well, if you know where it can be obtained I wish you would get a little of it and put it in my bed."

"Ah me!" sighed Potts, "I'm tired of living. The world is hollow, ambition's vain."

"Come now!" said his chum, "I know the symptoms;
It's all your liver—that's very plain.

You need not suffer, for help is easy,
Pierce's Pellets go right to te place.
'A friend to the bilious,' I well might call them—
There's nothing better; they'll suit your case."

Potts ceased his sighing and bought the "Pellets."

No more he mourneth his hapless lot!
His face is cheerful, his heart is lightsome,
His melancholy is quite forgot!

Egg shell crushed and shaken in glass bottles half filled with water will clean them quickly.

Popular Education.

We sympathize with the feeling which often leads citizens to boast that no child born in this country need grow up in ignorance, and yet it is a fact that many people who have learned to read and write have never taught themselves to think. A man who suffered from catarrh, consumption, bronchitis, scrofula, or "liver complaint," might read, till his eyes dropped out, how these and many other diseases have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, but if he did not take the lesson to himself and test the virtues of this great medicine, his time would be thrown away.

$10 REAL VALUE FREE!

Our new stamping outfit is free to every reader of this publication; it contains 100 perforated stamping patterns and includes a great variety of all sizes that are wanted. This outfit is a real work of art; no stamping outfit has ever been offered heretofore, on which anything like so much artistic ability was brought to bear. With each outfit is A BOX OF BEST STAMPING POWDER, PAD, AND BOOK of INSTRUCTIONS, giving full directions for stamping, tells how to make the powder and stamping paint, contains instructions for Lustre, Kensington and Hand painting, tells colors to use in painting—red, white, blue, yellow, pink and other flowers; also contains hints and instructions on other matters, too numerous to mention. Bought singly, or a few patterns at a time, at usual prices, the equal of the above would cost $10. Although it is free, yet this is the Regal Queen of Stamping Outfits and on every hand is acknowledged to be superior, yes, very much superior, and very much more desirable than those which have been selling for $1 each and upwards. By having 200,000 of these outfits made for us, during the dull season, we get them at first cost; the manufacturer was glad to take the order, at cost, that his help might be kept at work. All may depend that it is the very best, most artistic and in every way desirable outfit ever put before the public. Farm and Housekeeper (monthly, 16 large pages, 64 long columns, regular price 75 cents a year) is generally acknowledged to be the best general agricultural, housekeeping and family journal in America; it is entertaining and of great interest, as well as useful; its contributors embrace the widest range of brilliant talent. Furthermore, we have lately become managing owners of that grand monthly, Sunshine, for youth; also, for those of all ages whose hearts are not withered; 16 large pages, 64 long columns, regular price 75 cents a year. Sunshine is known favorably as the best juvenile monthly in America. The best writers for youth, in the world, are its regular contributors; it is now quoted all over the world as standing at the head. Both papers are profusely illustrated by the best artists. We will take 200,000 trial year subscribers at a price which gives us but a moderate portion of the cost.

FREE! Furthermore, every trial year subscriber, for either of the papers will receive free by mail our new 500 pattern Stamping Outfit. Trial year subscriptions will be received for either of the papers as follows: 1 subscription and 1 outfit, 12 cents; 2 subscriptions and 2 outfits, if sent at one time, 25 cents; 4 subscriptions and 4 outfits, if sent at one time, $1. For $1 send a dollar bill, but for less, send 1-cent postage stamps. Better at once, if you desire to join you, at 25 cents each; you can do it in a few minutes and they will thank you; papers will be mailed regularly to their separate addresses. While trial year subscribers are served for much less than cost, it proves the rule that in every large proportion of all who read either paper for a year, want it thereafter, and are willing to pay the regular price of 75 cents a year; through this, as time rolls on, we reap a profit that satisfies us.

FREE! Our trial year subscriptions are almost free, and this the Regal Queen of Stamping Outfits—the best ever known—is absolutely free. It is the greatest and best offer ever made to the public. Large sizes of patterns—every size that can be desired is included; all other outfits surpassed, by this, the best, the most artistic, the Regal Queen. Below we give a list of a few of the patterns; space is too valuable to admit of naming all: 1 Pansies for Scarf, 7 1-2 inch; 2 Tidy design, 7 1-2 inch; 3 Splendid Tinsel design, 8 inch; 4 Golden Rod, 4 inch; 5 Fan 2 Lilies; 6 Pansies; 7 Moss Rose Bud's; 8 Tube Roses; 9 Wheat; 10 Oak Leaves; 11 Maiden Hair Ferns; 12 Boy; 13 Girl's Head; 14 Bird; 15 Strawberries; 16 Owl; 17 Dog; 18 Butterfly; 19 Apple Blossoms; 20 Calla Lily; 21 Anchor; 22 Morning Glories; 23 Japanese Lilies; 24 Rabbit; 25 Bunch Forget-me-nots; 26 Fuchsias; 27 Bell Drops; 28 Fan; 29 Clown's Head; 30 Cat's Head. 70 other splendid patterns are included in this Regal Queen of stamping outfits—in all 100 patterns. Safe delivery guaranteed. Possessing this outfit, any lady can, without expense, make home beautiful in many ways, can embroider childrens' and ladies' clothing in the most charming manner, and readily make money by doing stamping. Lustre, Kensington and Hand painting for others. A good stamping outfit is indispensable to every woman who cares to make home beautiful. This outfit contains patterns for each and every branch of stamping work, fancy needle work, etc., and the Book of Instructions makes all clear and really easy. This outfit will do more for HOME and LADIES than many times the amount of a trial year subscription spent otherwise; no home should be with out it. The beautiful design of this REGAL QUEEN of outfits ARE ALL THE RAGE wherever seen; when ever one or two reach a locality their fame spreads, and many TRIAL YEAR subscriptions usually follow. Many who have paid from $1 to $2 for outfits and were satisfied still they saw our designs, have secured our outfit and laid aside forever the others. Those who subscribe will find the papers well worth several times the trifling cost of a trial year subscription, and the majority will make up to us the loss, that this year we incur, through such a low price, by continuing subscribers, year after year, at the regular price, which all will be willing to admit is low enough. The money will gladly be refunded to any one who is not fully satisfied. Address,

LITTLE MABEL was sitting next to a very small, thin man in the horse car. She leaned over to her mother and whispered: "Mamma, I guess God must have made that man on a rainy day." "What makes you think so, dear?" "'Cause he doesn't look as if there was much dust handy."

That Tired Feeling

is experienced by almost every one at this season, and many people resort to Hood's Sarsaparilla to drive away the languor and exhaustion. The blood, laden with impurities which have been accumulating for months, moves sluggishly through the veins, the mind fails to think quickly, and the body is still slower to respond. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, overcomes that tired feeling, tones the nervous system, and imparts new strength and vigor to the body.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is proven to be vastly superior to any other sarsaparilla, or blood purifier, that one has well said: "Its health giving effects upon the blood and entire human organism are as much more positive than the remedies of a quarter of a century ago as the steam power of to-day is in advance of the slow and laborious drudgery of years ago."

Nearly everybody needs a good spring medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla to expel impurities which accumulate in the blood during the winter, keep up strength as warm weather comes on, create an appetite and promote healthy digestion. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will be convinced of its peculiar merits. It is the ideal spring medicine.

"I take Hood's Sarsaparilla as a spring tonic, and I recommend it to all who have that miserable tired feeling." C. PARMELEE, 349 Bridge street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Makes the Weak Strong

"My appetite was poor, I could not sleep, had headache a great deal, pains in my back, my bowels did not move regularly. Hood's Sarsaparilla in a short time did me so much good that I feel like a new man. My pains and aches are relieved, my appetite improved. I say to others try Hood's Sarsaparilla." G. F. GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

LIVER, BLOOD AND LUNG REMEDY.

WHAT AILS YOU?

[COPYRIGHT, 1887.]

ARE YOU SICK?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indescribably miserable, both physically and mentally: experience a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, or of "goneness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity?

If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, complicated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY will subdue it, if taken according to directions for a reasonable length of time. If not cured, complications multiply and Consumption of the Lungs, Skin Diseases, Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease, or other grave maladies are quite liable to set in, and, sooner or later, induce a fatal termination.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY acts powerfully upon the Liver, and through that great blood-purifying organ, cleanses the system of all blood-taints and impurities, from whatever cause arising. It is equally efficacious in acting upon the Kidneys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, strengthening, and healing their diseases. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it promotes digestion and nutrition, thereby building up both flesh and strength. In malarial districts, this wonderful medicine has gained great celebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred diseases.

BILIOUS ATTACK.

DAVID G. LOWE, Esq., of St. Agathe, Manitoba, Canada, says: "Being troubled with a terrible bilious attack, fluttering of the heart, poor rest at night, etc., I commenced the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' and derived the very highest benefit therefrom."

LIVER DISEASE.

MRS. I. V. WEBBER, of Yorkshire, Cattaraugus Co., N. Y., writes: "For five years previous to taking 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' I was a great sufferer; had a severe pain in my right side continually; was unable to do my own work. I am now well and strong."

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE."

Thoroughly cleanse the blood, which is the fountain of health, by using DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, and bodily health and vigor will be established.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY cures all humors, from a common Blotch, or Eruption, to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, "Fever-sores," Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Virulent blood-poisons are, by its use, robbed of their terrors. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

A medicine possessing the power to cure such inveterate blood and skin diseases as the following testimonial portrays, must certainly be credited with possessing properties capable of curing any and all skin and blood diseases, for none are more obstinate or difficult of cure than Salt-rheum.

SALT-RHEUM AND RHEUMATISM.

"COLUMBUS, OHIO, Aug. 18th, 1887.
WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Gentlemen—For several years I have felt it to be my duty to give to you the facts in relation to the complete cure of a most aggravated case of salt-rheum, by the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' An elderly lady relative of mine had been a great sufferer from salt-rheum for upwards of forty years. The disease was most distressing in her hands, causing the skin to crack open on the inside of the fingers at the joints and between the fingers. She was obliged to protect the raw places by means of adhesive plasters, salves, ointments and bandages, and during the winter months had to have her hands dressed daily. The pain was quite severe at times and her general health was badly affected, paving the way for other diseases to creep in. Catarrh and rheumatism caused a great deal of suffering in addition to the salt-rheum. She had used faithfully, and with the most commendable perseverance, all the remedies prescribed by her physicians, but without obtaining relief. She afterwards began treating herself by drinking teas made from blood-purifying roots and herbs. She continued this for several years but derived no benefit. Finally, about ten years ago, I chanced to read one of Dr. Pierce's small pamphlets setting forth the merits of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and other medicines. The name struck my fancy, and seeing that it was essentially a blood-purifier, I immediately recommended it to the old lady who had been so long a sufferer from salt-rheum. She commenced taking it at once, and took one bottle, but seemed to be no better. However, I realized that it would take time for any medicine to effect a change for the better, and encouraged her to continue. She then purchased a half-a-dozen bottles, and before these had all been used she began to notice an improvement. After taking about a dozen bottles she was entirely cured. Her hands were perfectly well and as smooth and healthy as a child's. Her general health was also greatly improved; the rheumatism entirely left her, and the catarrh was almost cured, so that it ceased to be much annoyance. She has enjoyed excellent health from that day to this, and has had no return of either salt-rheum or rheumatism. The 'Discovery' seems to have entirely eradicated the salt-rheum from her system. She is now over eighty years old, and very healthy for one of such extreme age.

I have written this letter, of which you can make any use you see fit, hoping that some sufferer from salt-rheum might chance to read it and obtain relief by using your 'Golden Medical Discovery'—for 'Golden' it is in its curative properties, and as much above the multitude of nostrums and so-called 'patent medicines,' so zealously flaunted before the public, as gold is above the baser metals.

Respectfully yours,
F. W. WHEELER, 182 21st St."

CONSUMPTION, WEAK LUNGS, SPITTING OF BLOOD.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY cures Consumption (which is Scrofula of the Lungs), by its wonderful blood-purifying, invigorating and nutritive properties. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, Severe Coughs, Asthma, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. While it promptly cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood.

CONSUMPTION.

SOLOMON BEITS, of North Clayton, Miami Co., Ohio, writes: "I have not the words to express my gratitude for the good your 'Golden Medical Discovery' has done my wife. She was taken with consumption, and after trying one doctor after another I finally gave up all hope of relief. Being very poor and having but one dollar in the world, I prayed to God that he might show me something; and then it seems as though something did tell me to get your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' My wife took it as directed, and as a result she is so she can work now."

GAINED 25 POUNDS.

Wasting Disease.—WATSON F. CLARKE, Esq., of (Box 100, Summerside, Prince Edward Island, Can., writes: "When I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' I was not able to work and was a burden to myself. At that time I weighed 122 pounds, and to-day I weigh 147 pounds. Then I used to eat about one meal a day, and now can eat four or five if I dared to."

COUGH OF FIVE YEARS' STANDING.

MRS. N. W. RICE, of Newfane, Vermont, says: "I feel at liberty to acknowledge the benefit I received from two bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which cured a cough of five years' standing, and dyspepsia, from which I had suffered for a long time. I have also used Dr. Pierce's Extract of Smart-Weed, or Water Pepper, in my family, with good effect."

WORTH $1000 A BOTTLE.

W. R. DAVIS, Esq., of Belleville, Florida, writes: "I have taken your wonderful 'Golden Medical Discovery' and have been cured of consumption. I am now sound and well, and have only spent three dollars, and I would not take three thousand dollars and be put back where I was."

Discovery $1.00, Six Bottles for $5.00; by Druggists.

WILLIAM F. REBER, Secretary. AARON WILLIAMS, Chairman

The vote of the Methodist Conference excluding women from acting as lay delegates seems to be a formal declaration by the brethren that they are fully satisfied with their experience of the feminine power of debate in domestic matters.

The young woman in Maine who traveled on foot eight miles and back to engage a minister to marry her to her fiance, will probably be a very energetic, useful wife. But there does not seem to be any very strong guarantee, in the premises, that the bridegroom will not let her split wood and do the chores while he held a barrel down, attending to political duties at the corner grocery.

At a gathering of K. of L. a few days ago, statistics showed the order to be on the decline. The report says that Districts have dissolved, locals have lapsed and individual members have withdrawn their support. At the Richmond session of the General Assembly, the reports showed 702,000 members. At Minneapolis the figures were 483,000. On the first day of the present month the books of the General Secretary show less than 240,000 members in the order, showing a loss of more than one-half of the membership since the last General Assembly.

Further, the depletion seems to have only begun, and the indications are that the grand organization, which numbered 702,000 sons and daughters of toil in 1886, will be reduced to less than one-fifth of that number by the next session of the General Assembly.

The revenue at the present time is not sufficient to pay the large salaries of the general officers and to keep up the princely establishment they have provided for themselves in Philadelphia.

It is said that bills are overdue and that financial ruin stares the order in the face.

THE ADULTERATION OF KISSES.

The Louisville Courier Journal says: Considerable alarm is being expressed just now by a good number of the northern editors over a lesson they draw from the recent severe illness of a young man in Pennsylvania.

It seems that this youth was attacked by a violent and mysterious disease which came very near proving fatal and which for some time baffled all the efforts of the physicians to diagnose its cause. when, however, they finally succeeded they did it in this way:

The young man had a best girl, of whom he was very fond. The girl had very rosy cheeks, and the young man, as the doctors found in the prosecution of their professional investigations, was in the habit of kissing those cheeks where they were richest and ripest. Furthermore, these learned men discovered that the roses of the girls cheeks were not natural, but artificial, produced by the application of certain cosmetics known to the female toilet table; that these cosmetics were poisonous, and that their patient in kissing the girl had partaken of so much of her color that he was poisoned, and nearly lost his life thereby.

Granted that this is all true, we confess our inability to understand the consternation the case is creating among the younger of our masculine contemporaries of the north. To us all their talk about the danger of kissing and the necessity of swearing off is sheer nonsense. We cannot see how the case of this young man has any general application among people of taste. In the first place, a man who would kiss a girl on the cheek's deserves no sympathy, whatever may be the consequences. In the next place, a man who would kiss a girl who paints ought to be poisoned, and if the act itself carries with it its own proper penalty it simply saves somebody the trouble of throwing him a dog-bottom.

"Dr. Seller's Cough Syrup." Without exception has given satisfaction. Our readers give it a trial. Druggists keep it. Price 25c. a bottle. ap.
